The British Film Institute (BFI) Internship Young Students Opportunities 2025

Description

The British Film Institute (BFI) is offering a fantastic opportunity for young students to gain valuable experience in the film, media, and cultural sectors through its Internship Program for 2025. This program is specifically designed to introduce young talent to the world of film and media, offering a hands-on learning experience across various departments within the BFI. Interns will have the chance to work on exciting projects and contribute to BFI's mission of preserving and promoting film and moving image culture.

Responsibilities

As an intern with the BFI, you will be involved in the following tasks:

- Assist with day-to-day operations in one or more BFI departments (e.g., Programming, Marketing, Archives, Education, and Development).
- Support the planning and delivery of BFI events, screenings, and festivals.
- Conduct research into film-related topics, trends, and developments.
- Help prepare and distribute materials for events, presentations, and exhibitions.
- Provide administrative support including data entry, scheduling, and communications.
- Collaborate with the BFI team to develop and implement creative ideas and strategies.
- Engage with the BFI's community outreach programs, and assist in public engagement and educational initiatives.

Qualifications

- Must be a student currently enrolled in a secondary school, college, or university (ages 16-24).
- An interest in film, media, or the cultural industries is essential.
- A passion for learning and developing skills in a professional environment.

Experience

- No formal work experience is required, but any previous involvement in film, media, arts, or community projects will be an advantage.
- A demonstrated interest in film and cultural heritage, media production, or any related area would be beneficial.
- Strong communication skills, both written and verbal.
- Ability to work collaboratively as part of a team.
- Excellent organizational and time management skills.
- Creative thinking and problem-solving abilities.
- A keen eye for detail and the ability to handle multiple tasks.
- Proficiency in basic office software (e.g., Microsoft Office, Google Workspace).
- Social media savvy is a plus.
- Ability to work independently and show initiative.
