Counter Terrorism Policing Internship Placements Assistant Roles 2025

Description

The Counter Terrorism Policing Internship Placements offer an exciting opportunity to work alongside professionals in the UK's counter terrorism efforts. As an Intern Assistant, you will support the team in a variety of tasks related to the prevention, detection, and investigation of terrorism, while gaining valuable experience in national security operations. This internship aims to provide students with the chance to learn about counter-terrorism policies, operational activities, and the collaborative work involved in ensuring national security.

Responsibilities

- Assist in the collection, analysis, and evaluation of intelligence related to counter-terrorism operations.
- Support the preparation of reports, presentations, and briefings for senior officers and stakeholders.
- Provide administrative assistance to the team, including data entry, document management, and file maintenance.
- Participate in operational meetings, offering support and ensuring that records are kept up-to-date and organized.
- Conduct research on a range of issues related to national security, terrorism, and policing strategies.
- Work closely with other policing units and agencies, gaining insights into the collaborative approach to counter-terrorism.
- Assist with the development of communication materials and social media content for public awareness initiatives.
- Support event coordination for workshops, training sessions, and public outreach programs.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in an undergraduate or postgraduate degree program (criminology, security studies, law, political science, or related fields).
- A strong interest in national security, counter-terrorism, or law enforcement.
- Knowledge of UK counter-terrorism legislation, policies, and procedures is advantageous but not essential.
- Must possess the legal right to work in the UK.

Experience

- Previous experience in research, administration, or project support roles is desirable but not mandatory.
- Exposure to work in law enforcement, security, or a related field would be beneficial.
- Experience working in a team-oriented environment with a focus on high-level confidentiality and attention to detail.
