

Department For Work And Pensions (DWP) Internship Vacancies 2025

Description

The Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) is offering exciting internship opportunities for motivated individuals who are passionate about public service and policy-making. These internships are designed to provide valuable insights into the work of the DWP and the impact it has on millions of people across the UK. As an intern, you will have the chance to contribute to key projects, gain practical experience, and develop your professional skills in a supportive environment.

Responsibilities

As a DWP intern, your key responsibilities may include:

- Research and Analysis: Assist in gathering and analyzing data, reviewing reports, and contributing to research projects that support DWP's mission to improve welfare and support employment.
- Policy Support: Provide support to policy teams, helping to draft reports, prepare briefings, and track progress on various initiatives.
- Administrative Support: Assist with administrative tasks, such as organizing meetings, maintaining databases, preparing presentations, and coordinating events or workshops.
- Stakeholder Engagement: Help liaise with key internal and external stakeholders, building relationships and supporting communications efforts across different teams.
- Project Assistance: Collaborate on departmental projects, contributing ideas, and supporting delivery to ensure the success of ongoing initiatives.

Qualifications

- Currently studying for, or recently completed, a degree or equivalent qualification in any relevant field such as Public Policy, Social Sciences, Business, Economics, or Administration.
- Strong academic record with relevant coursework or projects that demonstrate an interest in public services or government operations.

Experience

- No prior experience is required, but any previous work experience, internships, or volunteering within the public sector or a related field would be beneficial.
- Demonstrated interest in public policy, government services, social welfare, or employment support is an advantage.

Skills

- Communication: Strong written and verbal communication skills to effectively collaborate with colleagues and present ideas.
- Teamwork: Ability to work effectively in diverse teams, contributing positively to team goals and objectives.
