Department Of Transportation Internship Graduate Opportunities 2025

Description

The Department of Transportation (DOT) is offering internship graduate opportunities for motivated and talented individuals in 2025. This internship program is designed to provide recent graduates with the chance to gain hands-on experience and develop key skills in the transportation industry. Interns will contribute to DOT projects and initiatives, work alongside professionals, and gain valuable insight into the functioning of a government agency focused on transportation systems.

Responsibilities

As a DOT Intern, you will be responsible for:

- Assisting with the development, implementation, and monitoring of transportation projects.
- Collecting, analyzing, and interpreting data related to transportation trends, traffic, infrastructure, and safety.
- Supporting project management teams by preparing reports, presentations, and documentation.
- Conducting research on various transportation issues, policies, and technologies.
- Attending meetings and contributing to discussions related to transportation planning and strategy.
- Participating in field visits and assisting with on-site assessments of transportation facilities.
- Providing general administrative support to senior staff members as needed.

Qualifications

- Recent graduate (within the last two years) with a degree in Transportation Engineering, Civil Engineering, Urban Planning, Public Policy, Environmental Studies, or a related field.
- Strong academic record with an interest in transportation, infrastructure, and public policy.
- Ability to work effectively in a team and independently.
- Strong organizational skills with attention to detail.

Experience

- Previous internship experience or academic projects related to transportation, urban planning, or civil engineering is a plus, but not required.
- Familiarity with transportation systems, urban infrastructure, and safety regulations is advantageous.
- Experience with data analysis, research methodologies, and technical reporting is desirable.
