Rockefeller Foundation Internship Program 2025 | Open Position

Description

The Rockefeller Foundation Internship Program offers a unique opportunity for emerging professionals to gain hands-on experience in global development, philanthropy, and impact-focused work. Interns will contribute to the Foundation's mission of promoting the well-being of humanity, with a particular focus on health, food, energy, and jobs. This position provides valuable exposure to policy, research, and programmatic work in a fast-paced and dynamic environment.

Responsibilities

- Assist with ongoing research projects, providing data analysis, and drafting reports to inform key strategic decisions.
- Support the development of program materials, proposals, and communications that align with the Foundation's priorities.
- Participate in brainstorming sessions, team meetings, and workshops to contribute fresh ideas to various initiatives.
- Provide administrative support to project teams, including scheduling meetings, organizing events, and preparing necessary documents.
- Help manage and update databases, tracking systems, and project management tools.
- Engage with stakeholders and partners, assisting with the preparation of presentations and other outreach materials.
- Collaborate with various internal teams, ensuring a smooth exchange of information and a clear understanding of project goals.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in or recently completed a Bachelor's or Master's degree program in a related field such as Public Policy, Global Development, Economics, Social Sciences, Environmental Studies, or a related discipline.
- Academic coursework or a demonstrated interest in philanthropy, international development, public health, or environmental sustainability is a plus.
- Strong understanding of global challenges, particularly in health, food, energy, or jobs, and their intersections with equity and sustainability.

Experience

- No prior professional experience is required, but any experience in research, international development, public policy, or social impact-related internships or volunteer work is a plus.
- Experience with project management tools and data analysis software (e.g., Excel, SPSS, Tableau, etc.) is beneficial.

Skills

- Excellent written and verbal communication skills, with the ability to convey
