Walsall College Internship Students Archives Vacancies 2025 In UK

Description

Walsall College is offering an exciting Internship and Apprenticeship opportunity within its Archives Department for 2025. This is an ideal role for students or recent graduates interested in working with historical documents, archives, and collections in an educational and professional setting. The internship/apprenticeship will provide hands-on experience in archival practices, preservation, and cataloging, offering a unique opportunity to contribute to the management and safeguarding of important records and materials. This is a fantastic opportunity to gain practical skills and build a career in the field of archives, libraries, or heritage management.

Responsibilities

- Assist in the collection, cataloging, and preservation of documents, records, and artifacts within the college archives.
- Support the digitization and indexing of materials for easier access and long-term preservation.
- Conduct research to support archival projects, providing accurate historical context for materials when necessary.
- Help maintain the physical and digital archival storage, ensuring materials are kept in optimal condition and comply with regulatory standards.
- Assist with organizing and delivering archival exhibitions, workshops, and educational resources for students and the community.
- Provide general administrative support within the archives team, including data entry, preparing reports, and filing documents.
- Engage with visitors, students, and staff to provide information on the archives and assist with research requests.
- Contribute to the development of policies and procedures for handling and preserving collections.
- Participate in training and development sessions to improve your skills in archive management, data handling, and preservation techniques.

Qualifications

- Applicants should be enrolled in or have recently completed a relevant academic qualification, such as A-Levels, a degree in history, archive studies, library science, or a related field.
- Candidates with a strong interest in history, archives, or heritage management are encouraged to apply.
- For apprenticeships, candidates should have a minimum of GCSEs (or equivalent) in English and Maths.

Experience

- No prior experience in archives or similar fields is required for the internship; however, candidates with any volunteer work, internships, or academic experience in research, history, or library studies will be advantageous.
- For apprenticeships, practical experience in office administration, research,
